ment. There was a time when scientists used glasses to see the moon, and this for a long time was considered the only service to which they could be properly put, but to-day there is not a port in the United States where glasses are not used on every gallon of molasses that lands at the port, to ascertain to the exact ounce, the amount of sugar in every gallon.
"When I was in Florida," continued Prof. Talley, speaking of science by way of illustration, "I was making some investigations because I had heard that a butterfly, if fed on a certain leaf, would change its color, so I determined to make the experiment.
Therefore, I got two caterpillars.
Their names are not very significant, yet I will give them: one was papillo-asterias, the other papilio-cresaphontes.
These two were put up to feed upon a certain leaf. One ate and thrived, the other perished. In other words, one accepted the conditions. The other could not, which taught me that no people can live and thrive unless they are in harmony with their surroundings. This is true with our people." Continuing, he said, "I rejoice in this movement which has been launched here. There is a large place in our racial circles for colleges of applied science. The man or woman who is not in harmony with his surroundings must pass away, be lost to sight.
There is a great industrial awakening in the South and the Negro will soon be called upon to take responsible positions in the industrial world.
As the call for skilled men increases we must be ready to meet the demand."

The Jubilee Club, under the able management of Prof. John W. Work, who is recognized as one of the best composers of Jubilee songs, sang "Listen to the Lambs all Crying," a new song which has never before been sung by a club. Following a selection of the Glee Club, the meeting was adjourned to meet in Chase Hall for the dedicatory prayer.

At Chase Hall.

Every room in this beautiful building was closely inspected by visitors and students, all of whom had come over from the exercises at Memorial Chapel. Rev. Dr. Llewellyn Pratt, D.
D., of Norwich, Conn., offered a most impart prayer dedicating the building to the cause of Christ as a Christian educational institution. Dr. Pratt has been a member of the executive board of the American Missionary Association for about twenty years. He is pastoring a large congregation in Connecticut, and came South in response to the invitation extended.

Following the exercises there was a base ball game for the entertainment of the guests. Supper was served at the dormitory at 5:30 o'clock and at 6:45 o'clock prayer meeting was held, during which a number of addresses were given by various visitors, interspersed with jubilee songs.
Following this meeting President and Mrs. Merrill gave a reception to the guests and faculty.

The following is the official program as rendered:

Program.

cent's Oratorio of "The Prodigal Son")—Mozart Society.

man and T. W. Talley.

Thus the day ended and Nashville to its posterity.

PRINCE HERRMAN.

As the days grow bright, hearts grow light at Prince Herrman's entertainments. Crowded houses greeted them every night this week, but the report from Meharry Auditorium reached this office too late for mention in this number. Next week they perform at Tabernacle Baptist Church, Monday night, March 11th; Odd Fellows Hall, North Cherry street, Tuesday night, March 12th; Fairfield Baptist Church, Wednesday night, March 13th; A. M. E. Zion Church, Sycamore street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues, Thursday night, March 14th; Salem Chapel M. E. Church, Buchanan and Cherry streets, Friday night, March 15th.

BRENTWOOD NOTES.

Rev. T. A. Thompson, D. D. Presiding Elder of the A. M. E. Church, Louisville, Ky., District, is spending a few days with his wife, daughter and son-in-law at Locust Lawn.

Rev. E. L. Vincent, student of Walden University, delivered two very acceptable sermons to the congregation of Brooks Chapel M. E. Church last Sunday morning and evening.

The Magnolia Club, of Brentwood, met March 4, 1907 at the residence of Mrs. Ed. Bills on the Franklin Pike.
The weather being pleasant a goodly number of ladies were present. At five o'clock the guests were called into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and ferns, and an appetizing dinner of six courses was served. All dined heartily wishing that the hostess would entertain the club again. Those present were Mesdames Mora Walker, Patsy Raines, Henry Perkins, Eliza Vernon, Cora Fields, Nora Dowell, Ann Johnson, Laura Voorhees, Susie Hunt, Janie Merritt, Anna Woods, Lucettia Bills; Messrs. Ed. Bills and Alex Raines. The gentlemen present complimented the ladies on the work of the sewing circle.

After the recent very wet spell the farmers of this vicinity are hopeful that they will soon get to plowing.

Mrs. Cora L. Fields was called away from school last Friday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Hubbard Newsome returned last Wednesday from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Emma Winston, of Orme, Tenn.

The Brooks Chapel M. E. Church Sunday School, under the superintendency of Prof. J. C. Crawley, is in a flourishing condition, and was highly complimented by Rev. E. L. Vincent, of Walden University.

AN APPROACHING WEDDING.

Invitations are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Mayme Kelly Clemmons to Mr. J. Blaine Boyd. This announcement, sent out by Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner Clemmons, parents of the bride, was received with delight among the wide circle of acquaintances of the two young people, and came as no surprise, as Dame Rumor had already cheated the invitations of this, but could not take from it the certainty of the official announcement.
At this wedding will culminate the capitulation of two hearts that wooed each other for the past four years.
Miss Clemmons has been in Nashville for about ten years and is a graduate from the normal department of Walden University, while Mr. J. Blaine Boyd is the second son of Dr. and Mrs.
R. H. Boyd, a Texan by birth, having come to Nashville about nine years ago. At present he is foreman of the press room of the National Battist Publishing Board, while Miss Clemmons has been employed as a clerk in the mailing department of the same institution. The wedding will take place Wednesday afternoon March 20, 1907, at 5 o'clock, at Mt.
Olive Baptist Church. There will be a reception from 6 to 9 p. m., at their residence, 1502 14th avenue, North.

TO SPEAK AT CENTERVILLE.

Upon invitation from Prof. T. J.
Clinisnon, Principal of the Centerville High School and Academy at Centerville, Tennessee, Rev. W. S. Elling-ton, editorial secretary of the National Baptist Publishing Board, and pastor of the First Baptist Church, will deliver a lecture before the students, faculty and citizens to-night. Rev.
Ellington has in that city, as in Nashville, preached and talked himself into the hearts of all the people. They are constantly issuing invitation after invitation for him to come to their city.
Prof. Clinisnon, the principal, is a very energetic young man and has a progressive school.

PROMINENT CITIZEN ROBBED.

The genial Secretary and dean of the Globe Publishing Company, Mr.
Chas. H. Burrill, while on his way home last Friday evening had the misfortune to fall in among thieves and consequently is short of a part of his filthy lucre which makes the mare go.
Mr. Burrill stopped at one of the business firms between his residence and the Globe office to make a few trifling purchases for some friends and after he had received his packages and paid for them it is thought that two burly men succeeded in connecting themselves with his money. The loss was not discovered until he had reached home. He returned at once to the scene of the robbery but was unable to gain any information concerning the lost amount.

WARNING CRY SOUNDED.

the two would win. My friends, I want to leave one thought with you, and that is, you will be brought into judgment for every thing you do and for everything you say. When you make an obligation, keep it."

The address was highly appreciated by all present and many were heard to express their approval of all that was said.

On Sunday evening, March 10, the Endeavor society will be addressed by Mr. J. C. Russell, of Goodlettsville, Tenn.

Mr. Burrill is of a retiring disposition and always shuns anything which has a tendency to give notoriety, hence it is thought that he has failed to put the matter in the hands of the police as yet.

HELIOTROPE CIRCLE.

The Heliotrope Circle, which held its last meeting Monday, February 26, at the residence of Mrs. W. N. Hill, 501 Ewing avenue, where their work was displayed very nicely, making the reception room very attractive and inviting. After business was transacted by the President, Mrs. D. Houston, an elaborate three-course menu was served in honor of the Circle and Mrs. T. A. Williams, of Franklin, Tenn. The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Misses Franklin and Beatrice and Mrs. Smith, who served the guests. Those present were Mesdames Lofton, McKay, Sloan, Batts, Reed, McCarthy, Cunningham, Cheatham, Dobson, McEwen, Hardiman, Junager and Morris. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. L. T. Mc-Cathy's on Fogg street.

FISK NOTES.

Professor Frank Smith and family attended Union Church Sunday and took dinner at Jubilee Hall.

Mr. Calloway, class '89, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday and Monday with us, and gave us an inspiring talk from the chapel platform Monday morning.

The first base ball game of the season was played on Bennett field Wednesday afternoon. This game between the two teams of the university was complimentary to the visitors.
Result of the game next issue.

Miss Frankie Caldwell, of the Senior Preparatory Class, who was called to her home, Friar's Point, Miss., last week on account of the illness of her mother has returned to school.

The friends of Miss Pearl Erwin, of Bell Buckle, Tenn., are glad to see her in school again. Miss Erwin had been out of school a while on account of illness.

The Fisk Debating Club met in regular session Thursday night, February 28. The subject for debate was: "Resolved that woman suffrage would be for the best interests of the civilized world." J. G. Browne and B. A. Jackson were the affirmative speakers and H. R. Merry and Jas. Robinson supported the negative. The debate was decided in favor of the affirmative.
Judges—Dr. G. W. Henderson, T. P.
Haralson and Wm. Dawson. A large number of the young ladies were present with Miss D. A. Scribner, professor of literature.

MISS GRANT RETURNS.

Miss Josephine S. Grant, of 1606 Jackson street, returned Monday evening from Baltimore, Md., where she has been with her patient, Mrs. Dr.
Pomeroy, whom she carried from Monterey, Tenn., to be operated on at Johns Hopkins Hospital. Miss Grant had the opportunity and pleasure of meeting some of the most prominent physicians and nurses of the country.
She has been with this patient since December. On her return she stopped over at Washington and Knoxville.
While in Knoxville she was entertained by Mrs. Dr. McCoy, of East End Infirmary.

Miss Grant is a graduate of the Nurse Training Department of Meharry Medical College and has been kept busy every since her graduation.

FIRESIDE SCHOOL SOCIAL.

The Fireside School, under the management of Mrs. M. H. Flowers, entertained about 40 guests last Tuesday from 8 to 10:30 p. m., in honor of Miss H. K. Patrick, matron of A. and M. College, Normal, Ala. Miss Patrick was for several years connected with the work of Fireside School, and became greatly endeared to all who resided in the Home and those who were interested in the work.

The program of the evening consisted of a pleasing address by Miss H.
K. Patrick; solos by Misses Anderson and Garrett; duet by Miss Nettie Mc-Intosh and Miss Claybrooks. Scripture texts were repeated by a majority of those present. The texts were found uniquely hidden in napkins passed around previous to the serving of ice cream and assorted cakes. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Carter, the guests retired. Much credit is due Mrs. Flowers and members of Fireside School for the unique and profitable entertainment and for a demonstration of the fact that religion and social intercourse will mix.
